

2-Hour Fire Rated Cable Solutions and Life Safety Symposium

Wednesday, May 23rd, 2018, 8am-12pm

Location: Corporate Event Centre, 5110 Creekbank Road, Mississauga

On behalf of Cerco Cable, you are cordially invited to attend a half day workshop on VitaLink 2-Hour Fire Rated Cables for transit and infrastructure applications. Hear from the experts in transit from RSCC and Comtran on the latest Canadian standards, installation protocols & best practices, splicing, terminating, LSZH cable options and more.

Program Schedule:

- 8:00 - 8:30 Refreshments Provided
- 8:30 - 8:45 Welcome to the symposium - presenter: Dan Gauthier, President, Cerco Cable
- 8:45 - 10:00 Introduction to Marmon / RSCC / Comtran / Cerco
2-Hour Fire Rated Power Cable (RSCC Wire & Cable LLC):
presentors: Michael Brennan, Director of Sales and Marketing, Fire Safety, RSCC
Ardi Keshavarzi, National Sales Manager – Fire Safety Transit
- Low Smoke Halogen free cables for Transit Infrastructure
 - ULC S 139 Fire Test for Fire resistant cables in Canada
 - Fire rated cables for Transit Infrastructure (Emergency circuits required by NFPA 130/NFPA 502)
 - Fire rated splices for Transit Infrastructure
- 10:00 - 10:15 RSCC - Questions & Answers
- 10:15 - 10:30 Break
- 10:30 - 11:45 2-Hour Fire Rated FAS Cable (Comtran Cable):
presenter: Bruce Sinnott, Director of Business Development
- Introduction to Marmon Group Cable Manufacturers
 - Case Studies
 - Definition of Circuit Integrity
 - VITALink™ Cable Construction Detail, Features and Benefits
 - Primary Applications
 - UL 2196 / ULC-S139 Test Standard
 - FHIT System Components
 - Problems with Earlier Approvals
 - Test Apparatus, Setup and Execution
 - Current Product Listings
 - Applicable NFPA Codes and Standards
- 11:45 - Noon Comtran – Questions & answers

RSVP

If you'd like to attend, please provide the number of participants to gpercyc@cercocable.com

